

West-Riding of } At Christmas Sessions, 1760, held, by Adjourn-
 YORKSHIRE. } ment, at Wakefield and Doncaster, the following Resolutions were enter'd into by the Court, relating to the Subsistence of the necessitous Famalies of Militia-Men.

I. THE Allowance to the Wife of a Militia-Man shall not exceed One Shilling a Week, and Sixpence a Week for each Child under Eight Years old, supported by the Mother. Nothing to be allowed for Children above that Age, except impotent.

II. Where the Circumstances of the Wife and Children do not require so large an Allowance, less shall be made.

III. A Woman in Childbed shall be allowed Ten Shillings for the Month, including the Child.

IV. Where any additional Pay, over and above his Majesty's is given to a Militia-Man, either from the Town he serves for, or (if a Substitute) from his Principal, such additional Pay, if less than the weekly Allowance above agreed upon, shall be reckoned a Part thereof; if more, no Allowance whatsoever shall be made.

V. The Treasurer shall not pay any of the Overseers Bills without an Order, signed by a Justice of Peace, setting forth that he had examined the Overseer upon Oath to the Truth of his Account, who had sworn the Money charged therein had been duly expended: For which Purpose Justices of Peace are desired to appoint a certain Day within their respective Divisions, and give Notice thereof, that the Overseers may attend them.

By Order of the Court.
